Description

Looking for Ash Cans?

The smokers' pole is a space-saving solution to control cigarette waste. The oxygen-restricted design helps to extinguish cigarettes and its durable aluminum construction make it exceptionally safe for use. It features a recessed extinguishing screen that prevents ashes from falling to the ground. The pole empties easily with no tools. It has a weather-resistant, powder coated finish and weighted base for stability.

Powder coated finish in Black or Silver

Portable base for easy positioning where you need it
